Thank You, Jesus

Thank you, Jesus, for air that we breath.
Thanks for flower, the sun and the trees.
Thank you, Jesus, for the birds in the air.
Thank you, Jesus, for all that is fair.

Thank you, Jesus, for moonlight so bright,
And for stars that illunime the night.
How I long to be in heav'n where You are!
Thanks for making me your shining star.

Thank you, Jesus, for Dad and for Mom,
For they love me and give me a home.
But in heaven there's a mansion for me
Where I'll live with You eternally.

Be the Hands and Feet of Jesus

Thank you, Jesus, for eyes to see,
Hands to swing and to climb a tree.
Thank you, Jesus for families dear,
Loving parents who always care.
Thank you, Jesus, for food to eat,
Clothes to wear and a bed as a treat.

Help us never to forget
That children, families and other rejects,
Badly need our kind hearts and kind hands
To feed them, clothe them, and serve them.

Let's start with our neighborhood
Cleaning up the litter, visiting the aged,
Donating clothes to the needy, feeding the homeless,
And teaching refugee children,
It wasn't that hard after all!

Yes, be the Hands of Jesus
Be His Feet;
Going to places wherever there is a need.
