God Wants to Be My Very Best Friend

Lesson 5
God Wants Me to Show My Love for Him by Loving My Parents

Janice and Sally had just moved to a city. They had never lived where there were so many cars!

"Honor your father and your mother. Then you will live a long time in the land. The Lord your God is going to give you this land."

Exodus 20:12, ICB
God Wants Me to Show My Love for Him by Loving My Parents

How can I honor my mother and father besides obeying them?

Cross out the wrong answers below.

1. By speaking respectfully to them.
2. By not making them ashamed of the way I act.
3. By not telling other people things that would embarrass them.
4. By loving them.
5. By helping them.

Janice, you must always hold Sally's hand whenever you cross the street. Sally, NEVER cross the street without holding Janice's hand.

We won't.

Janice, hold my hand, Dad said you have to.

But we are not ready to cross yet, and I want to pet this kitty.

Oh no! Sally crossed the street! I better run!

Now we can cross. I will just cross without her. That will teach her to hold my hand next time!

Janice did wake up and she was not badly hurt. After that she and Sally were always careful when crossing the street.

There was a horrible screeching of brakes, then silence. Janice lay white and still on the road.

That car hit Janice! It is all my fault! Oh God, please make Janice wake up. I promise I will do what mom and dad tell me. Please give my sister back to me and help her be okay!

Sometimes our parents tell us to do something that does not seem too important, but God has promised us that we will live longer if we obey.

We can show God that we love Him by honoring and respecting our parents. And it will show our parents we love them too.
