

Chapter 12

BAPTISMAL GUIDELINES AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR CHILDREN

What response do we give children when they ask to be baptized? How do we go about preparing them to accept God's grace and to walk fully in His light? What resources do we use to get our primaries and juniors ready for baptism? What do they need to know before baptism? What is the best age for baptism? We should not hesitate too long, for the child's decision will fade away. If we don't respond to their exciting decision to follow Jesus and be baptized, we may lose the golden opportunity to do so later.

Making a decision to follow Jesus is a serious step toward spiritual growth. The Church Manual, p. 29 concurs that:

“Baptism is a spiritual relationship. It can be entered into only by those who are converted. Only in this way can the purity and spiritual caliber of the church be maintained. It is the duty of every minister to instruct those who accept the principles of the truth, that they may enter the church on a sound, spiritual basis. While there is no stated age for baptism, it is recommended that very young children who express a desire to be baptized should be encouraged and entered into an instruction program that may lead to baptism.”

Ellen G. White also recognizes that children do make serious decisions for baptism. She counsels the church in Testimonies, vol. 1, p. 169 that:

“Children of eight, ten or twelve years, are old enough to be addressed on the subject of personal religion. Do not teach your children with reference to some future period when they shall be old enough to repent and believe the truth. If properly instructed, very young children may have correct views of their state as sinners, and of the way of salvation through Christ.”

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

When a child makes a decision to become a follower of Christ, the Children's Ministries coordinator should encourage the church leadership to arrange a service of Affirmation of Faith for that child. Such a ceremony helps to affirm the child's decision and to let him know that the congregation rejoices with him/her for making such a commitment.

BAPTISMAL BIBLE STUDY

Select and use a child's baptismal study guide or any other appropriate Bible study material for children that is approved by the Seventh-day Adventist church. The following study guides are recommended for use with children:

- Bible Treasures, edited by Aileen Sox. Nampa, Idaho: Pacific Press Publishing Association, 2004.
- ChristWise: Discipleship Guide for Juniors, by Troy Fitzgerald. Hagerstown, MD: Review and Herald Publishing Association, 2002.
- ChristWise: Discipleship Guide for Teens, by Troy Fitzgerald. Hagerstown, MD: Review and Herald Publishing Association, 2002.
- It's My Choice, by Steve Case. Hagerstown, MD: Review and Herald Publishing Association, 1996.

BAPTISMAL VOWS

After the child has completed the Bible study and is ready to become a church member, his/her request for baptism should be presented to the church board. On the day of baptism when the child will be examined publicly, ask the pastor to use the "Simplified Baptismal Vows" by Steve Case. This is easier for the child to understand the vows as he makes a commitment.

Affirmation of Faith (A Sample Ceremony)

Song:

* allow the child to choose a song that is familiar to him/her.

* it does not have to be song from the hymnal; it could be a song from Sabbath School.

Introduction:

* have the child sit in the front row before the ceremony.

* the Pastor or a Faith-Friend who knows the child best can introduce him/her to the congregation.

* give a brief history of when, where, and what prompted the decision.

* focus of remarks is about the child. You could say:

“I would like to introduce you to Bryan Nelson. Many of you have seen Bryan here at church. Last month at our Children’s Retreat Bryan made a decision. He decided to make Jesus his friend, and wants to be one of His children.”

Affirmation:

* to be read or recited by the child to the congregation.

For example:

“Because I know that God loves me
I choose to live my life as one of His children,
Because Jesus died for me
I want to please Him through the way I live.

Faith Friend: Introduced:

* explain their role.

For example:

“Having a friend to support you can mean the difference between success or failure. The Bible says that, "If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up!" (Eccl. 4:10).

Bryan has chosen his Sabbath School teacher, Mr. Jerry Page, as his faith friend. A faith friend is someone who will encourage him in all aspects of his life, but most importantly, on his spiritual walk with Jesus.

* Faith friend recites commitment to the child.

For example:

"As your faith friend, I promise to support and care for you. Like you, I may make mistakes, but I know that God forgives me. I want you to know you can come and talk to me any time. I want to be your friend."

Congregation Response:

* get congregation to participate in the ceremony by raising their hands or standing as support.

For example:

"Bryan, there are many other people here who I know would also like to be your faith friend. Would those of you in the congregation who would like to be a "friend" to Bryan please stand? Would those who are willing to encourage and support him with love; those who want to make a commitment to be positive and not criticize or condemn, but be a friend, please stand now."

Prayer:

* the pastor offers a short prayer.

Shake Hands:

* give the Affirmation of Faith card to the child.
